Walther League Will Enter Float in Parade

The Redeemer Lutheran Walther Leaguers met for their regular gathering on Tuesday, March 7. Rev. Fox concluded the discussion on the Lord's Prayer, treating the last three petitions. This was followed by a Bible Quiz in which all present participated.

The League appointed Elia Jans as Topic leader for the next meeting. It was also decided that Pastor Fox devote a series of meetings on the distinctive doctrines of various church denominations. It was reported that the play chosen for presentation this spring was entitled "Deacon Dubbs" and that work on it would begin immediately.

Two committees were appointed to provide Lenten displays in the town of Didsbury.

Due to lack of time the League will not present an Easter Tableau this year. Instead, a religious movie on the Passion of the Savior will be shown, if all possible, on Easter Sunday evening.

The League also discussed the possibility of entering another float if the town of Didsbury has a parade this year. It was reported that definite plans were drawn up but what these were was not divulged. The League sanctioned the "unknown" plans and voted the necessary funds. The society also voted a sum of money for the "Tract Race" in the church.

Finally, Rev. Fox was authorized to obtain estimates on a church sign.

Following a number of games, which were enjoyed by the group and individuals, lunch was served.

Pastor Fox Addresses Redeemer Ladies' Aid

Pastor Fox, speaking at the Redeemer Lutheran Ladies' Aid meeting on Thursday, March 9, showed the relation that should exist between daughter-in-law and mother-in-law as exemplified in the Book of Ruth. It was also drawn to the attention of the members present the dangers of mixed marriages.

During the business meeting it was reported that the Aid cleared over $100 at its recent congregational supper. This sum was voted for the building program of Concordia College at Edmonton. The Aid also voted $15 for a sponsorship of the Lutheran Hour Broadcast over station CPXY in memory of Dr. W.A. Maher, who had served, until his untimely death recently, as speaker of the Lutheran Hour.

The group decided to meet on Thursday, March 16, and make a number of confirmation gifts for use in the local congregation.

At the request of Mr. A. Reiber, Rev. Fox spoke on the Blood Donor Clinic to be held in Didsbury on March 24. He showed the ever-present need of blood and briefly indicated how this blood bank has saved lives in the past. In conclusion he urged the Aid members and their families to register for the clinic.

The Aid also authorized Pastor Fox to look into the matter of buying a number of folding chairs.

Following a delicious lunch, the meeting was brought to a close with the song "God be With You Till We Meet Again," sung in behalf of Mrs. John Piper, who with her husband has been Didsbury visitors for the last three months but who will very shortly return to their home in Saskatchewan.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Levagood Have 40th Wedding Anniversary

Forty-eight friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Levagood gathered in the United Church basement at Westcott on Sunday evening, March 12, to help celebrate their fortieth wedding anniversary, which was on Friday, March 10.

The evening was spent in singing hymns and a short program of solos, trios and readings. Two month organ and guitar solos by Mr. Norman Tuggle, two solos by Mrs. Ernie Walker, two comic solos by Mr. Jack Robertson and two numbers from the three Owens brothers were enjoyed.

A poem was made up and read by Mrs. Jim Hughes. Another poem, written by Mrs. Jack Robertson on the life of the bride and groom, was read by Mrs. Jack Robertson.

The singing of "For They Are A-Jolly Good Fellows" brought a very pleasant evening to a close and all wished Mr. and Mrs. Levagood many more years of happiness and many more years as neighbors.

Red Cross Canvassers Start Out On $2500 Objective

The Red Cross campaign is now in full swing and the Didsbury Branch has organized and canvassers are out in an endeavor to collect at least $2500 in the Didsbury district before the end of the month. Since the Didsbury district subscribed as much as $9000 in a single year during the war years for Red Cross work, the committee in charge of the local campaign believes that the objective they have set is not too large. However, this does not mean that donations should be held back. The work of the Red Cross goes on continually, along with expenses, and you are urged to give generously when the canvassers call.

Canvassing is a big job, especially when people are not at home at the time the canvass is made, and for this reason you are asked to contribute to this worthy cause at any convenient time, either by contacting the canvasser in your territory, or by making your contribution direct to the campaign headquarters, which is Reiber Brothers' office in Didsbury.

Campaign captains are: Town, C. E. Reiber, E. Cogswell, and Geo. Thring; East: E. K. Cullen and Fred Metz; West: G.A. Youngs and J. B. Worthington.

Town Canvassers: Mrs. W. A. Austin, Mrs. Ruth Eckel, Ed Buhr, Jack Githner, Geo. Thring, Max Wood, Joe Freeman, W.A. Austin, E. Cogswell, Sid Fox, Clarence Stroud, Bennett Brower, Ed Wiggins, Chuck Alden, Jim Hooper, Roy McArthur and Jake Schellenberg.

East Canvassers: Walter Scheidt, Bruce Parker, E.K. Cullen, Henry Rempel, Ken Burns, Bruce Shells, Robert Eckel, Lloyd Clippiey, Otto Bittner, Barney Elliott, Pete Schumaker and Raymond Hayne.

On Wednesday night, March 8, the Olds High School hockey team outscored the Didsbury Beavers to win the A.T.A. trophy by taking the final game on Didsbury ice 5-3. When your reporter asked for a comment on the victory, the team was told, "No comment."

On Saturday night following the Glenora Club Skaters, the Beavers again met the team from Westcott and points north, south, east and west. The Beavers, playing their better brand of hockey, took the lead early in the game and skated off the ice at the end of three periods, winners by a score of 8-1.

Next Saturday night, if the ice holds, the Beavers will play Calgary's Tuxedo Park team in an exhibition match. This will likely be the last game of the season, and a good crowd is expected.

Municipal Council Ask For Review of Some Areas For P.F. Benefits

At the meeting of the Council of the Municipal District of Mountain View No. 12 held in Didsbury on March 6, the odds and ends of the year's business were cleared up to make way for the new Council when it takes over following the declaration of the results of the election in Division 4 on Saturday, March 18.

A communication from the Department of Lands and Mines approved the sale to the Municipality of five acres on the S.W. of 36-32-5-3, for the purpose of a nuisance ground to serve the Hamlet of Sundre. Approval was also given for the leasing of a road allowance south of the S.W. of 13-32-5.

THE HEALTH UNIT REPORTS . . .

About two weeks ago we became mildly but not unreasonably alarmed at the continued prevalence of scarlet fever. We felt it in our bones that there were a lot of cases, which, due to previous immunization, were so mild that they were frequently not reported to their family doctor at all. The complaint maybe was nothing more than a sore throat, and mother would keep little Johnny at home for a day or two, and then send him back to school. Little Johnny then unwittingly and unknowingly would transmit the disease to Tommy, and a few days later Tommy, who had also been immunized some years ago, would be away from school for a few days. This time it may have been the same story of nothing more than a sore throat, or perhaps there was as well "a little measles rash", but the boy was not sufficiently ill to warrant calling out a doctor all those miles. And Tommy would be back to school within a week. His mother Tommy in turn infects Marilyn, and Marilyn's folks, although they had always intended to have their children injected against diphtheria, whooping cough, scarlet fever and smallpox, somehow never got around to finding the time to take them to the immunization clinic. As a result Marilyn goes down with a really whacking attack of scarlet fever, and is seriously ill, and mother, teacher and doctor all send for us to hurry and come immediately and isolate the case and quarantine all contacts. That was the position as it appeared to us some weeks ago. Made all the more complicated, we should mention, by the fact that concurrently we have German Measles in many parts of our area, and the diagnosis as between these very mild cases of Scarlet Fever and German Measles is not always easy and may well at times stump the cleverest doctor.

We decided it was time to take certain measures. And amongst these perhaps the most important, was the circularizing of all the school teachers within our unit, and after having explained the difficulties confronting us, enlisting their help and co-operation in advising us of all and any sore throats amongst their pupils as well as of all any rashes, and to isolate and to quarantine any such pupils until we had had an occasion to investigate.

The response to this circular and the measure of help which we have had from our school teachers has been magnificent. In fact, we have been overwhelmed by requests to investigate sore throats. No doubt this was to be expected, and we have seen all manners and kinds of sore throats this week. Certainly we would like to take this opportunity of thanking our teachers publicly and at the same time of explaining that where we have not yet been to investigate it has been entirely due to the rush of work.

The position now with regard to Scarlet Fever is roughly as follows: In the Sundre area there has been no further case for over three weeks now. In Olds and its immediate neighborhood scarlet fever has not reared its ugly head for over two weeks. There has been no further case reported from the area twenty miles west of Olds, nor any from the area ten miles west of Didsbury. But a focus of infection has been discovered about ten miles east of Carstairs, and there have been a few isolated cases in and about Carstairs itself, as well as a few cases some miles east of Didsbury. The danger is by no means over.

In our wanderings over the countryside visiting the homes of all sections of the people of our area we have gained lots of new impressions, and made not a few observations. Amongst the latter we have noted how many women in isolated parts are ignorant of even the elementary principles of nursing. And the time may well come when good nursing will make all the difference between life and death.

It is important to be able to read a thermometer, to take the pulse, to give a bed bath, to give an enema. To know the elements of hygiene and the principles of disinfection. These and many other nursing subjects will be embraced in a series of lectures on home nursing which our nurses are planning to give, and which in fact have already begun amongst the high school girls in both Carstairs and Crossfield. We congratulate these girls on their zeal.

Why Red Cross Needs Five Million Dollars

Red Cross blood flows today in more than 100,000 Canadian civilians who have been transfused with free blood or blood plasma since the beginning of the national Blood Transfusion Service in 1947.

More than 173,000 Canadians, in peacetime period, have given one or more donations of their own blood that their friends and neighbors and strangers they have never seen might have a better chance for life.

This is the heartening record of the Canadian Red Cross Society's Blood Transfusion Service, announced recently by Dr. W. S. Stanbury, national director. In the second week of the Society's annual appeal for $5,000,000.

Canada's Governor-General has characterized this service, now operating in eight provinces and soon to be extended, as "one of the greatest health ventures ever undertaken by a voluntary organization."

In the first ten months of 1949 alone, 50,000 patients in Canadian hospitals received free blood transfusions of whole blood or plasma, Dr. Stanbury said.

"More than 83,000 bottles of blood were collected in 805 clinics in the same period. It takes up approximately three bottles of whole blood to make one bottle of dried plasma, which is used mainly in cases of severe shock and burns."

Nearly 70,000 clinical Rh tests have been conducted by the Red Cross since 1947, insuring that hundreds of newborn babies, among others, get a new lease on life, he reported.

"The Red Cross Rh ante-natal investigation service is greatly appreciated by the medical profession, judging from the increased use of Rh Clinical tests and the number of requests from physicians for consultative advice from Red Cross medical officers."

Another advantage of Red Cross Transfusion therapy, he pointed out, is that it shortens the period of hospitalization, increasing hospital capacity and reducing the cost of hospital care.

The service, first began in British Columbia and Alberta in 1947, now operates in Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, New Brunswick, Manitoba and portions of Ontario and Quebec.

For maintaining and expanding this life giving service, Red Cross has budgeted for $1,831,603 of its $5,000,000 in 1950.

Highlights of Budget Presented For Alberta

On Friday evening in the Alberta Legislature Premier Manning presented the 1950-51 budget. The highlights were as follows:

Record expenditure of an estimated $71,676,791.

Record income of $77,231,230 predicted.

Revenues from natural resources, principally oil, higher than those from taxation for the first time.

$315,000 provided for Borsal-like reform institution at Bowden, Alberta to pay off $19,269,808 from its debt of $129,888,280.

Early conclusion of irrigation agreement between the province and the Dominion is anticipated. The government will seek an authorization of $2,000,000 expenditure for large-scale irrigation development.

Old age pensions increased $2.50 a month to a maximum of $50.

No tax reductions.

Public works expenditure estimated at $21,481,000.

Direct financial aid to municipalities and school districts to cost $14,748,600.

Income from mines and minerals up $8,385,500 at $21,056,500.

Provision made for $2,000,000 expenditure on trans-Canada highway dependent on a Dominion-provincial agreement.

Liquor profits to amount to $10,300,000 up $800,000.

Life Depends on Water

We can live without house or clothing for months, we can live without food for days, but to live without water is figured in terms of hours and minutes.

It is something we seldom think about. Water is common, easily accessible, and cheap. It is cheaper than dirt; you can buy water in our cities, delivered by tap to your bath and sink, for about a nickel a ton, while just ordinary dirt fill costs from about a dollar up, and topsoil comes at around $10.

It is only when a crisis occurs that we realize our dependence upon water. Even then we mostly take stopgap measures such as prohibiting the watering of lawns or shutting off the supply for a few hours a day, or as in New York recently, going without shaving on one day a week.

In a paragraph, here are the ten most important uses of water, every one of which have been the basis of hundreds of volumes of technical writing: moisture in the air makes organic life possible; drinking water is our greatest physical need; plants, from lowly lichens in Niagara Gorge to Douglas firs of British Columbia, grow only where there is water; the sea is the home of fish and of other food used by men; steam power and electricity depend on water; mechanical and chemical processes in industry need water; from earliest times, water has provided men with a means of transportation; water dictates the location of cities and farms. In the form of ice water is used universally for cooling and preserving; water is the great determinant of political boundaries.

With so many demands upon it, there naturally is competition between one use and another. Sometimes municipal and provincial or federal governments must step in and establish priorities. They may prohibit street washing, or reduce withdrawal for electric power generating, or ration the supply to industries.

Our disregard for the importance of rainfall and water supply has become a dangerous influence in civilization. It leads to faulty economic ideas, confuses our thinking about colonization and immigration, blinds us to the consequences of building bigger and bigger cities, and leads us into wrong judgements about the location and prospects of factories.

Water is benevolent, when properly managed. It can be productive and support prosperous communities if its flow is wisely used. Our water problems are the outcome of our efforts to adapt our physical environment to our economic and social needs, without reckoning sufficiently on nature's unchanging ways.

By drying up marshes and lakes we have destroyed the breeding grounds of useful water-fowl and fur bearers. By clearing lake and stream banks of bushes we have exposed the water to sunbathing, warming it so that it is spoiled for the best fish life. By denuding hillsides of trees we have increased water wastage and lowered the water level in great areas, making it impossible for the roots of food plants to find moisture. By inadequate management of electricity, as in Ontario last year, and of water depth for navigation, as in the Lachine Canal last year.

YOUR BLOOD IS NEEDED

Most of us are well aware of the workings of present Red Cross blood donor clinics and blood banks. This system whereby blood is collected periodically and kept, ready typed, in plasma form, in banks at central points, whence it is distributed on request to various hospitals in the province make it possible to give transfusions of the right type of blood to patients requiring them with the least possible delay.

Blood transfusions are coming into more frequent use because of this system, thus saving many lives and hastening the recovery of other patients. Moreover, under the present system, blood transfusion service is greatly reduced in cost as the plasma is supplied free of charge by the Red Cross.

In order to carry out their program of saving life and relieving suffering the Red Cross must depend on the co-operation of the public in assuring an ample supply of blood for the provision of the required plasma. This blood must come from voluntary donors if the free service is to be continued. While the response to the call has been quite good in the past, it has not been good enough, and this district finds itself in the position of using more blood than has been locally donated.

The urgency of the need for greater supplies has made it necessary for the Red Cross to advance the date of the clinics which are being held the country over.

As we stated before, quite a large number of those who have donated their blood in the past, have been or will at some time, be in need of the service which they make possible by their donation. Cases have arisen where a person who has donated blood has received the same blood back within a few days of their donation.

Obviously, the only reasonable excuse that can be given for not co-operating with this humanitarian project is that of ill health or inability to spare the necessary blood. If you are in doubt upon this point your doctor will put you to rights.

Right now the local Blood Donor Committee is endeavoring to obtain as many registrations as possible for the Blood Donor Clinic to be held in Didsbury on Friday, March 24. If you are not registered as a donor please contact Mr. A.W. Reiber immediately.

Expect Record Volume Of Tourists This Year

Alberta government will give special attention to promote fresh interest in improving tourist accommodations and other facilities this year. It was reported recently.

Also, attention will be directed to the importance of spreading out the tourist season, taking advantage of the fall attractions when there is less congestion on the highways and it is more easy to obtain lodgings.

At the same time, the federal parks improvements in 1950. More highways will be surfaced and reconstruction programs completed. Certain building projects in the parks undertaken in 1949 will be completed this year.

The Alberta Motor Association also plans to give over service possible to the visiting tourist. It has organized a "Courtesy Club" which consists of several thousand members and is gaining in membership month by month. This is another step to make the visitor comfortable and happy when holidaying in this province.

Officials of service organizations, Information bureaus and the provincial government are confident that 1950 will see a record volume of tourist travel enter this province.

UP GOES FREIGHT RATES

The Board of Transport Commissioners has granted the railways a freight rate increase of 7.4 per cent. The railways can put this increase into effect at any time, after fifteen days' notice has been given.

The 7.4 per cent increase is on top of two increases of 21 per cent and 8 per cent given previously. The way these increases are pyramided works out so that the actual increase over the schedules prevailing prior to March, 1948, is about 40 per cent.

PLANT FOOD LOSSES

It is estimated that in the United States the cultivated crops annually remove from the soil three or four million tons of nitrogen, 2 million tons of phosphoric acid and five million tons of potash. These are the three major plant foods. Fertilizers used replace only one-tenth of the nitrogen and one-fifth of the potash. Furthermore, H.H. Bennett, chief of soil conservation board in the United States, estimates that 63 million tons of plant food are annually swept by water from cultivated fields and pastures. This figure, which does not include losses from wind erosion, is twenty times the loss resulting from crop production.

Canada is the leading country of the world in the export of bauxite.

FERTILIZER TESTS

The application of fertilizers to the shallow black soils, soils in the moist parts of the dark brown soil zone and to the heavy clay soils have given increased crop yields in southern Alberta in tests carried on by the Lethbridge Experimental Station. Fertilizers applied to the medium and light textured soils in the light brown soil zone gave little or no response. The best fertilizer was found to be 11-48-0 and the most profitable rate, 50 pounds per acre.

MERCHANT FLEET AT PEWREW STRENGTH

Britain's merchant shipping fleet is now back to prewar strength. The huge gap in the United Kingdom's tonnage of over three and one-half million tons in 1945 has been made good within four and one-half years.

Jr. F.U.A. Nominates Stampede Queen

One of the first candidates in the field for the Calgary Stampede Queen contest is Miss Eileen Beckner of Carstairs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H.C. Beckner, oldtimers of the Carstairs district, sponsored by the Junior Branch of the Farmers' Union of Alberta. Miss Beckner is quite at home on a horse and she enjoys meeting the public, she is looking forward to the contest, win or lose.

A Student's Voice:
"A merry heart doeth good like a medicine." So said the wise man.
Because we believe this proverb
our school year has been punctuated periodically with evenings of fun and laughter. Soon after the opening of the College we had a merry "get acquainted" party. Then later a Christmas party which was a little quieter in keeping with the spirit of the occasion.

The regular parties feature games, contests, stunts, play-lets, singing and refreshments. Each term-end is naturally a time for celebration.

The Social Committee is entirely responsible for the planning and carrying out of the evening's activities. But we consider this a privilege for we are assured of full cooperation from each student.

We are anticipating more of the same heart medicine next year.

DRILLING FOR OIL AT B.F.P.

For the first time at any trade exhibition, an exhibitor at the British Industries Fair will bore a hole 1,000 feet deep to prove the quality and durability of his drilling apparatus. The firm is a manufacturer of portable well-drilling equipment for test boring of coal, oil and other minerals. Drillings will take place daily for the duration of the Fair.

MIDGET FAG FACTORY

A midget cigarette factory will be on view at the British Industries Fair this year. A well-known firm of British cigarette manufacturers is turning its stand into a practical exhibit which, by the time the exhibition closes, will have turned out six million cigarettes, enough to supply a smoker with 20 a day for 844 years.

SAILING BOATS FOR CANADA

A consignment of Fairy Marine sailing boats left Britain recently for Canada. They are 25 boats of the Firefly (14 ft. International) and Swordfish (15 ft.) classes. Last year in competition with 40 of the world's finest helmsmen, Charles Curry, England, won the Queen
General's Cup in a Fairy Marine 14-foot International at the Royal
St. Lawrence Yacht Club.

Can. Red Cross Blood Transfusion Service

During the latter half of this month the Canadian Red Cross Society will be placing a vital appeal before the citizens of Didsbury . . . an appeal for voluntary blood donors on behalf of hospital patients whose lives often depend upon the immediate blood transfusions they receive.

Citizens of Alberta are indeed fortunate that the Canadian Red Cross Society's free Blood Transfusion Service is now available in every hospital in the province. Life saving supplies of whole blood and plasma, held in readiness by the Red Cross, are now available whenever needed and without any cost whatsoever to the hospital patient.

The need for this service is abundantly clear to us all. Relatives and friends are no longer burdened with anxiety of frantically searching for donors of a suitable blood type, results of which were often too late. Without this Service, blood transfusions would be costly, so costly indeed that they would be beyond the means of smaller hospitals as well as many of the patients they serve. Many people living in the Didsbury district have already benefitted from this free service directly and it is expected that many more will benefit in the future. It is the responsibility of the citizens of this district to give their support as voluntary blood donors when the clinic is in town. By giving your blood freely when in good health, we are guaranteeing a supply adequate that we, our wives and children, can get blood whenever illness or accident occurs.

The giving of blood is harmless to the giver and free from any discomfort or pain. The loss of blood is speedily made good. It is a service which can be performed by anyone enjoying normal health, man or woman, of town or country between the ages of 18 and 65. It only requires a few minutes of the donor's time each year.

Many in the Didsbury district have never registered as blood donors, although they realize that they or one of their next-of-kin may at some future date be in need of an immediate blood transfusion to save their lives. Since the registration and donation of blood has been of a voluntary nature it is hoped that these non-registered donors in the Didsbury district will come forward and register immediately with the chairman of the blood donor committee, Mr. Art Reiber.

To carry out this great humanitarian work the Canadian Red Cross needs your help . . . It needs you as a voluntary donor at the clinic on March 21st from 3:00
to 6:00 p.m.

The Northwest Territories have a total area of 1,300,000 square miles and an estimated population of 16,000.

Fertilizers Needed For Grey Wooded Soils

While the grey-wooded soils of Central Alberta are originally unproductive, through intelligent management and the use of manure and commercial fertilizers, these soils can be made to produce crops that will give a high economic return per acre. While there are many different soil types included in grey-wooded soil zones all are characteristically low in organic matter, nitrogen, phosphorus, and sulphur. There are indications that potash is marginally deficient on these soils.

Farm manure is one of the most valuable materials to use in grey-wooded soil improvement, says A. R. Aitken of the Lacombe Experimental Station, Alberta. The application of fifteen tons of manure per acre every three years has given the best yield increase of grain over all other treatments at Chedderville and Fallis illustration Stations. At the Athabasca grey-wooded Substation, two years' results show that manure was the only treatment that consistently increased the yield of grain. Results from experiments conducted at Breton show that when ammonium phosphate 16-20 is applied in combination with manure, yields of wheat, oats and barley are increased by three, fifteen, and nine bushels per acre, respectively, over manure alone.

Ammonium sulphate applied at 50 pounds per acre has been unyielded in grain production only by manure treatment in tests on the illustration Stations at Fallis and Chedderville. While ammonium sulphate is effective on both hay and grain crops, it is exceeded in hay production by ammonium phosphate and a complete fertilizer. At Chedderville ammonium sulphate yielded an average of 2.39 tons, compared with 3.27 tons from A.P. 16-20, and 4.01 tons of hay per acre from the complete formula.

Ammonium phosphate 16-20-0 has given consistently large yield increases. The combination of ammonium phosphate 16-20-0 with potassium sulphate has produced slightly better yields than ammonium alone. While the additional increase in yield may be small, the potash tends to hasten the maturity of the crop.

Grey-wooded soil should be fertilized and manured frequently to achieve progressive improvement. Results from Chedderville suggest fertilizing at least twice in a five-year mixed rotation of hay and grain crops. Fifty pounds per acre will likely be sufficient for grain crops where fertilizer is drilled in with the seed. Higher rates up to 100 pounds per acre are suggested for hay crops, or where the fertilizer is broadcast.

GERMANS REBUILDING

American dollars are helping to rebuild the German flour milling industry. Says George E. Swarbeck, London, England correspondent of the Northwest Miller: "Let there be no doubt in anyone's mind that the German millers, fine technicians all, will ensure their mills are bigger and better than ever, capable of producing even more flour than was the case in prewar days."

Scientist Says World Is Getting Warmer

The weather of the world is getting warmer, according to Dr. Geo. Kimble of McGill University, Montreal. He says the temperature of Montreal has risen from an average annual temperature of 12 degrees in the 1880's to 41 degrees in the 1940's. This has been characteristic of the entire North American region.

Glaciers all over the world are receding with one or two regions in southeastern Alaska exceptions, says Dr. Kimble. The Columbia Icefield in the Canadian Rockies is receding so fast that if present conditions persist it will disappear in a few decades. Furthermore, the northern limit for feasible cultivation of wheat has advanced from 200 to 300 miles in Canada.

WORLD POPULATION

The population of the world is estimated at 2,300,000,000 people. These figures, however, are little more than guesswork.

The United Nations has undertaken to work out a world census operating through established world governments. In nations comprising about one-third of the world's population no census has ever been taken. China is a notable example of this.
